

Exodus Chapter 21 Study Guide

Question 1 - Multiple Choice

How long shall a Hebrew servant serve?

- A) Three years
- B) Six years
- C) Seven years
- D) Ten years

Question 2 - Multiple Choice

What happens if a servant loves his master and family?

- A) He must leave
- B) He can stay forever
- C) He is sold
- D) He is punished

Question 3 - Multiple Choice

What is the punishment for a man who kills another man?

- A) Life imprisonment
- B) A fine
- C) Death
- D) Exile

Question 4 - Multiple Choice

What must happen if an ox kills a man?

- A) The ox is set free
- B) The owner is punished
- C) The ox is stoned
- D) The owner pays a fine

Question 5 - Multiple Choice

What happens if a servant's eye is damaged?

- A) The servant is freed
- B) The master is punished
- C) The servant is sold
- D) The master must pay a fine

Question 6 - True or False

A servant's wife and children belong to the master if the master gave him a wife.

True False

Question 7 - True or False

A man who steals another man shall be put to death.

True False

Question 8 - True or False

If a woman is hurt during a fight, the man who caused it is not punished.

True False

Question 9 - True or False

If a servant is beaten but does not die, the master is not punished.

True

False

Question 10 - True or False

The owner of a pit must pay for any animal that falls into it.

True

False

Question 11 - Discussion

Discuss the significance of the laws regarding servants in Exodus 21.

Question 12 - Multiple Choice

What is the consequence for a man who smites his father or mother?

- A) He shall be punished with a fine
- B) He shall be put to death
- C) He shall be imprisoned
- D) He shall be exiled

Question 13 - Multiple Choice

What should happen if an ox gored a man or woman to death?

- A) The ox shall be sold
- B) The owner of the ox shall be punished
- C) The ox shall be stoned
- D) The owner shall pay a fine